

Update: Remember Jubilee Christmas Shopping the Weekend?

Jubilee Christmas is next Saturday, December 14th and donations are need before THIS Wednesday, December 11th. There's only about a more week to get ready for all of our Jubilee families and are a number of ways you may become a part of this special event. The Jubilee Christmas wish-list is as follows:

- New, unwrapped Toys including bicycles and sports equipment
- New Clothing, suitable for ages: new born-12 years old -- including winter coats
- Gift wrapping materials: paper, ribbon, bows, and tape
- Batteries
- Cash contributions are needed for general expenses; Give online by clicking HERE

Donations are being received at the following locations:

- LUM Ray Ewry Youth Program Center, 525 N 4th Street, Lafayette (rear entrance); Weekdays, 1-5 p.m. through December 11
- Greyhouse Coffee & Supply Co., 100 Northwestern Ave, Chauncey Village, West Lafayette; during hours open

Monetary donations may be given at any time. To give donations online, click HERE. Any questions, please call or email Ron Smith (765.423.2691 | rsmith@lumserve.org).

Message from LUM Executive Director

Jubilee Christmas Toys Needed. Perhaps it is because Thanksgiving was later this year, but LUM Jubilee Christmas Program Director Ron Smith says donations of toys for Jubilee Christmas are slow to come in this year. If you are out doing your holiday shopping this weekend, please remember the 1,700 boys and girls that will be served through next weekend's LUM Jubilee Christmas Program. Your gifts of new, unwrapped toys for boys or girls, infant - age 12, may be brought to LUM's Ray Ewry Center, 525 N. 4th St., Monday through Thursday between 1-5:00 p.m. Use the rear entrance. Thank you!
~ Joe Micon, LUM Executive Director
