So — Grab lasagna dinner to go and help raise funds for Lafayette Urban Ministry.

Creasy Springs' events benefit LUM

Creasy Springs Health Campus (Lafayette) has sponsored two holiday events with all of the proceeds going to Lafayette Urban Ministry.

This past Saturday, Creasy Spring hosted the one & only Santa Claus! The Creasy Springs' Breakfast with Santa program included breakfast and pictures with Santa. Pictured (L to R): Molly Schulz, CSHC customer service specialist, Joe Micon, LUM executive director, Santa & Melanie Brown, CSHC community service representative.

TOMORROW evening, Creasy Springs is offering a quick but delicious take-out meal for busy families at their Dine & Dash Lasagna Dinner. See above for details. Both events benefit the families in our community — and support LUM as well.

Very special thank you to Creasy Springs for their continued support of Lafayette Urban Ministry. For more information on Creasy Spring Health Campus, click HERE. If you wish to make a donation to LUM, click HERE.

Dental Hygiene Supplies for LUM Shelter

Students enrolled in the Dental Hygiene program at Ivy Tech Community College, Lafayette made a donation to the LUM Emergency Shelter. They collected new tooth brushes, travel size tubes of toothpaste, and dental floss from the participants of the annual Lafayette-West Lafayette Christmas Parade in Downtown Lafayette yesterday.

Thanks to the Ivy Tech Dental Hygiene students for thinking of LUM & our shelter guests this holiday season. To make a donation to LUM, click HERE.
