

Update: Happy New Year!

LUM 2016 – We'll Take a Cup of Kindness

Let's take a moment this New Year's Eve to reflect and say Thank You to all who contributed to the successes at LUM in 2016.

Thank you...

- If you prepared a meal for the homeless and delivered it to the LUM emergency shelter;
- If you contributed to the LUM Good Samaritan Fund, helping 1,800 families to avert utility disconnect or eviction from their homes;
- If you attended the Port of Hope event or volunteered with the LUM Immigration Clinic;
- If you served on our Board of Directors;
- If you served as a LUM tax preparer and helped return millions of dollars in refunds and credits to low-income households in our community;
- If you volunteered as a LUM Camp counselor, After School Program tutor or in one of LUM's other youth programs that are successfully narrowing the academic achievement gap;
- If you fought hunger in our community by volunteering to feed 2,200 individuals each month through St. John's/LUM Food Pantry — or by participating in Hunger Hike;
- If you ran in the Turkey Trot, worked at the Community Thanksgiving Celebration, or contributed to one of 1,900 Jubilee Christmas kids

With the humble yet heroic efforts of the LUM volunteers and record-breaking fundraising activities in 2016—LUM has impacted a significant number of children and families in our community.

What YOU do for LUM is so important for enabling us to accomplish our mission — and gives hope to families, encourages and educates children, and is a positive force in our community.

Thank you for choosing us as your partner this year.

Should old acquaintance be forgot
 And never brought to mind
 Should old acquaintance be forgot
 And days of auld lang syne
For auld lang syne, my dear,
 For auld lang syne,
 We'll take a cup o'kindness yet
 And days of auld lang syne
 Should old acquaintance be forgot
 And never brought to mind
 Should old acquaintance be forgot
 And days of auld lang syne

Happy New Year!
